

Orientation & Training

January 30 - February 5, 2011

Preparing You for the Great Commission

World Indigenous Missions invites you to our annual Orientation and Training in New Braunfels, Texas. This is your launching pad into world missions! Not for the faint of heart, WIM Orientation & Training packs each day with classes designed to help you recognize and confirm your call to missions. Seasoned WIM missionaries, drawing from decades of experience, teach you the steps to the mission field. The staff works hard to introduce you to the family of WIM and to answer your questions regarding cross-cultural ministry.

What will you learn in the WIM Orientation & Training? WIM's vision and core values, an overview of the training program, how to raise financial support, how to identify and develop your spiritual gifts and much, much more!

Here's How It Works

If you sense a call to missions and want to take the next step toward becoming a WIM missionary, then WIM Orientation and Training is for you. It begins Sunday, January 30, and ends Saturday, February 5. The cost of $425 per single/$600 per couple includes food, lodging, and materials.

For those who want only to test the waters and learn more about WIM and missionary life, we offer Orientation without the Training sessions. Orientation begins Sunday and ends Tuesday evening. The cost is $200 per single/$300 per couple.

To register, please complete the form below and mail with your payment. Whether you attend only the Orientation or the full Training, you MUST be fully paid by January 15. You will receive class materials in the mail after we process your application, so register as soon as possible. Due to the intensity of class work, please make arrangements for your children in advance. Childcare is not provided.
